ETHICS POLICY (2012)

The University envisions developing and sustaining ethical standards in social, academic, intellectual, administrative, research and financial fields with a view to creating a fair, just and professional platform for all stakeholders to interact, grow and flourish.

The University has set for itself a mission to

- i. Maintain the highest levels of Academic integrity and ethical conduct of research through awareness, promotion, education and practices.
- ii. Ensure equity, justice and non-discriminatory practices with high degree of multicultural awareness, periodic review of practices/ procedures and adherence to all applicable laws and statutes with respect to non-discrimination.
- iii. Provide accountability, transparency and independence in promotion, teaching-learning, administration, operations and accounting with objective, clear, consistent and accurate information, record-keeping and practices.
- iv. Respect critical analysis and reasoned opinions with freedom of discussion and dissemination of knowledge and information within the regulations and laws.
- v. Provide resolution for complaints or grievances of any individual or group with fairness, professionalism, confidentiality and in a timely manner with credence given to the opinions or positions taken by all parties.

By adopting an Institutional Code of Ethics, the institution demonstrates its commitment to implementing these values and principles.
